48TH YEAR.—NO. 40.

The interest of all parties and all classes in this country is involved in the special reconstruction of a cordial Union between all the States. The war is over and we have nothing to fear from such a policy; on the contrary, we have everything to lose by keeping alive a spirit of second alienation.

COMMUNICATION FROM SOLDIERS.

Under this head there appears in the True Democrat of to-day what purports to be a card from Phillip Lehr, Cornelius Leffever, Lewis J. Schenberger, Frederick
A. Achel, George W. Voss, and Samuel Cross—all soldiers who were originally attached to the call for the Johnson and Clymer Soldiers' Club, denying that they signed, or authorized the signing of their names to the call for the organization of such Club, and that they will not support Clymer for Governor.

To show to what miserable tricks the discreditable leaders will resort to misrepresent facts and deceive the people, we publish below the affidavits of all those soldiers except one, stating that the card purporting to be signed by them does not represent their true sentiments in regard to the election of the facts, and that they had fully authorized the use of their names to call for a Soldiers' Johnson and Clymer Club.

We also publish the affidavits of three respectable citizens and members of the Club, who swear that Samuel Cross authorized the use of his name to call said Club in their presence. By these affidavits we have had one of the basest lies yet published concerning the organization of the Soldiers' Johnson and Clymer Club, united to the soldier and the patriot, and placed in anything but an enviable position.

Other false-scholar of an equally glaring character appear in the article, which will be fully exposed next week. Meanwhile the Democratic Conservative Club is increasing in numbers and "the work goes bravely on."

GETTYSBURG, PA.:
Monday Morning, July 9, 1861.

FOR GOVERNOR,
HON. HESTER CLYMER,
OF BERKS COUNTY.

Democratic County Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, at Wolfe's Hotel, in Gettysburg, on Saturday last, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

M., to nominate a County Ticket, appoint Congressional Conferences, and transact such other business as may be deemed necessary. The Delegate Elections to open at 5 and close at 7 o'clock, P. M., in all the Districts except in Gettysburg—in the latter place to open at 7 and close at 9 o'clock, P. M.

Resolved, That the Delegate Election in Union township be held this year at Soll's Station.

NATIONAL JOHNSON CONVENTION.

A call has been issued at Washington for the assembling of a National Johnson Convention, to be composed of at least two delegates from each Congressional district of all the States, two from each Territory, two from the District of Columbia, and four delegates at large. It is proposed that the Convention shall assemble at Philadelphia on the 14th of August next. The object of the Convention is to sustain the Administration, to affirm the indissolubility of the Union, the supremacy of the Constitution and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, and the equality of all the States, including the right of representation.

The call is signed by Messrs. A. W. Randal, J. R. Doolittle, O. H. Browning, Edgar Cowan, Charles Knapp and Samuel Fowler, Executive Committee of the National Union Club, and is endorsed by Hon. James Dixon, T. A. Hendricks, Daniel S. Norton and J. W. Nesmith. A Washington dispatch of Tuesday says:

The call for a National Convention to meet at Philadelphia on the 14th of August, has attracted considerable attention here. The friends of the Administration are sanguine of having a full representation from all the States.

It is understood that the movement receives the sanction of the President and a majority of his Cabinet. It was gotten up quietly, and took the Radicals by surprise.

DUNCAN vs. MCNAUGHEY.

The Chambersburg Spirit says:—The law of Congress disfranchising alleged deserters and non-reporting drafted men having been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, we presume, as a matter of course, Mr. McConaughy, the pretended Senator from this district, will resign his seat at once, so that his successor may be elected at the approaching fall election. We take it for granted that Mr. McConaughy, being a lawyer and a "loyal" law-abiding citizen, will not persist in holding a seat in defiance of the law, as expounded by the highest judicial tribunal in the State. The Supreme Court has decided that the seat rightfully belongs to Mr. Duncan. Mr. McConaughy held it during the last session of the Legislature in ignorance we must charitably suppose, of the law. This may excuse him for the past, but the law having now been defined by the only competent authority in the State, this excuse will no longer avail him. If he continues to claim it will be acting the part of a usurper and transgressor of the law. Mr. Duncan does not claim the seat by virtue of last fall's election, though he might properly do so. He and his friends simply demand that the question be referred back to the people for decision in October next. Will Mr. McConaughy have the manly honor to resign and permit the question to be so referred? We ask the Gettysburg Star, his home organ for an explanation as to the course he intends to pursue. In the name of a majority of the legal voters of this senatorial district, we make the inquiry.

The recent decision of the Supreme Court of this State, against the acts which were designed to authorize provost marshals and boards of election to disfranchise men for desertion from military service, and those who failed to report when drafted, completely upsets the foundation upon which David McConaughy, of the Franklin district, holds a seat in the Senate. We hope Mr. Duncan will now make another effort to secure justice and his seat from the Disunion majority. Let it be done, and at least put the Disunion party again in conflict with the Constitution, the law and the highest court of the Commonwealth.—Patriot & Union.

The Constitutional Amendment.—It is said that the Legislatures of all the "loyal" States are, at the suggestion of the Governor of Pennsylvania, to be immediately convened, so that they may ratify the proposed amendment to the Constitution before the adjournment of Congress.

Why this unnecessary haste? The calling of the Legislature of this State in extra session, would be attended by an expense of not less than $200,000. But it seems that the thing is to be rushed through, while the Radicals have the power, regardless of expense, or of the views of the people. If the matter was suffered to lie over until after another election, the Legislatures of several of the States that are now under Radical control, might be against them, and so defeat the proposed amendment. Therefore, the verdict of the people is not to be trusted.

Greeley's anxiety to get his Radical friend Chief Justice Chase out of the scrape of trying Jeff Davis, is manifestly convened, so that they may ratify the proposed amendment to the Constitution before the adjournment of Congress.

Highly Important.—It is reported from Washington that an address to the people of the United States has been agreed upon by the Democratic and Conservative members of Congress and is now being signed. It fully endorses the call for a National Convention, to assemble at Philadelphia on the 14th of August next, and urges participation in its proceedings.

Soldiers' Mass Convention.—A Soldiers' State Mass Convention, favoring the adoption of Hester Clymer's policy, has been called for the 14th of August at Harrisburg. It is expected to be a large gathering—one calculated to cause the shoddy to shake in their shoes.

An exchange says that Thaddeus Stevens is suffering from "droop" on the chest and "spasm" on the brain.

Don't forget the Democratic Mass Convention, at Reading, on Wednesday, the 18th of July.

Ex-Gov. Wise signs himself "Henry Wise, Brigadier-General, C. S. A." prisoner of war on parole.

An exchange says that Thaddeus Stevens is suffering from "droop" on the chest and "spasm" on the brain.

War has commenced in Europe.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

On Friday week, the President went to the House of Representatives a committee in response to a resolution of that body, requesting the Executive to transmit the constitutional amendment, recently adopted, to the several States for ratification. He announced that the amendment was transmitted to the thirty-six States on the 16th, but wishes it to be distinctly understood that he does not commit himself to its approval. He thinks it improper that such a radical change should be made in the organic law, while eleven States are unrepresented in Congress and when the Legislatures of the other States were not elected with any reference to the question at issue.

The document is considered as a pretty strong protest against the action of Congress, and as a matter of course excited the indignation of the Radicals.

The following is the President's message:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I submit to Congress a report of the Secretary of State, to whom was referred the concurrent resolution of the 13th inst., respecting the admission of the Legislator of the State of Missouri to the Constitution of the United States.

It will be seen from this report that the Secretary of State had on the 16th inst., transmitted to the Governors of the several States certified copies of the joint resolution passed on the 13th inst., proposing an amendment to the Constitution. Even in ordinary times any question of amending the Constitution must be justly regarded as of paramount importance.

This is important, not only on account of the fact that the joint resolution was submitted by the two Houses for the approval of the President, and that of the thirty-six States which constitute the Union, eleven are excluded from representation in either House of Congress, although with the single exception of Texas, they have been entirely restored to all their functions as States, in conformity with the organic law of the land, and have appeared at the National Capitol by Senators and Representatives who have applied for, and have been admitted to the same, as new.

Nor have the sovereign people of the nation been afforded an opportunity of expressing their views upon the important question which the amendment involves. Grave doubt may therefore naturally and justly arise as to whether the action of Congress is in harmony with the sentiments of the people, and whether State Legislatures elected without reference to such an issue should be called upon by Congress to decide respecting the ratification of the proposed amendment, or the presentation of a bill authorizing the same.

On the contrary, a proper appreciation of the letter and spirit of the Constitution, as well as of the interests of national order, harmony and union, and a due deference for an enlightened public judgment, may at this time well suggest a doubt whether any amendment to the Constitution ought to be proposed by Congress and pressed upon the Legislatures of the several States for final decision.

The object of the amendment of the unrepresented States as have been or may hereafter be chosen in conformity with the Constitution and Laws of the United States. ANDREW JOHNSON.

HOW THE MONEY GOES.

In the U. S. Senate, a few days ago, Mr. Sherman arose in his place and stated that he had information from good authority that the appropriation of twelve million dollars, recently voted by Freedmen's Bureau, was not sufficient to pay the expenses of that interesting institution for the current year. He moved, therefore, that an additional appropriation of six millions five hundred thousand dollars be added to the former appropriation. This motion was agreed to at once and without debate! This makes eighteen millions five hundred thousand dollars appropriated to the support of the "pet banks" for one year. This, too, is separate and above the thousands of valuable funds voted to the negroes some time ago.

The extravagance of the present Rump Congress exceeds anything ever known in the history of any country. Delegations of negroes can be seen at all hours of the day hovering about the two Houses, and their business is to solicit enormous appropriations for themselves and to demand "equality and the ballot,"

That their influence with the radicals is unbounded, is attested by the wonderful success they have met with their impudent and extravagant demands are accented to with a promptness that surprises even the negroes themselves.

When we consider that the people of this country are groaning under a taxation at once oppressive and almost beyond endurance—a taxation that impoverishes every man except the "loyal slaves" who made their millions by permission of Lincoln—when we consider these facts, we say, is it not time for the people to stop short and ask themselves the question, "Is there now no room for the negroes?" No people, we care not what their resources may be, can tolerate this state of affairs many years.

The present Rump Congress votes away daily hundreds of thousands of dollars of the people's money, with an impunity that is positively frightful. It is time for the people to open their eyes to the doings of the majority in Congress, for we tell them that if this extravagance is persisted in, a people will go out of existence.

The dinners and suppers were A No. 1, embracing everything the season affords, whilst the attentions of those waiting upon the table could not fail to be appreciated. The cheer was good enough to tempt and satisfy those of the highest nations—Governors, or Presidents,—even Printers!

OLY.—We understand that Major Dyke has suspended boring for oil on the Hammon farm, near Hampton, and will commence to-day on the Wertz farm, near New Chester. This step has been rendered necessary by a fissure in the rock, at a depth of about one hundred feet, which carried the auger in a slanting direction.

MOWING MATCH.—A mowing match came off at Hanover on Thursday week. Six different machines entered the contest, and the Spectator says all performed admirably. No judges were appointed, but the same paper says that a majority of the persons present expressed themselves in favor of the "Hubbard," of which Henry Thomas & Son are agents for this country.

DEMOCRATIC PAPERS.

There is a healthy look about our Democratic exchanges throughout the State which is gratifying to observe. Many of these are being enlarged and otherwise improved. They are fighting the political battle bravely and deserve to be encouraged. In the present important political campaign a very large share of the work must be done by the Democratic press. A special effort should be made by every Democrat to increase the circulation of Democratic newspapers. By no other agency can so much good be accomplished. If we can get the people to read both sides, the revolution that is now going on in public sentiment will be complete, thorough and lasting. To this end let the circulation of Democratic newspapers be increased. Proper efforts by individual Democrats will accomplish wonders. Let each man do his whole duty in this matter, and the combined result of individual effort will be such as to astonish even the most sanguine.

The Way the Money Goes.—The Jacobin Congress spend more money, in one way or other, to assist in carrying out their designs, than would pay all that the soldiers and sailors ask of them. The "Investigating" committees use up more money than any one has an idea of. There is now a bill before the House for $52,000 for the contingent fund. The nation is bleeding at every pore, and these scoundrels will not leave enough life in it, if they are not stopped, to make even an appearance among the nations of the earth. It is a continual drain on the treasury for the benefit of the negro. Will the people let the opportunity slip them this fall of sending the whole batch to Coventry?

Blazonists in Council.—The "Union League" of disunionists of Pennsylvania held a grand council at Pittsburg on the 8th ultimo, to take measures how to keep the Union divided and maintain traitors in power. Its success in Rheumatic affections, has been hitherto unparalleled by any specific, introduced to the public. Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists and storekeepers. Prepared only by H. E. MILLER, Wholesale and Retail Druggist, East Berlin, Adams County, Pa., dealer in Drugs, Chemicals, Oils, Varnish, Spirits, Paints, Dye-stuffs, Blotting Oils, Essences and Tinctures, Window Glass, Perfumery, Patent Medicines, &c., &c. Dr. A. D. Buehler, the Agent in Gettysburg for "H. E. Miller's Celebrated Rheumatic Mixture." June 3, 1861.

Resolved. That, in the opinion of this State Grand Council, the cause of liberty, union, justice and humanity requires that the nominees of the Republican Union party of this State shall be selected to have their disowning candidates, any attempt to bring forward third candidates for the several State and county offices, and we denounce the same as calculated and intended to bring about the election of the Copperhead candidates of the so-called Democratic party.

They are alarmed, and well they may be. They see a ghost already, and protest against him.

TRADE MARK

THE HUBBARD.

AT THE OLD STAND.

[ESTABLISHED IN 1817.]

I have associated with me, in business,

my son, John F. McCready, under the firm and style of D. McCready & Son, and I desire to say to my old friends and the public generally that since the war, the manufacture of Saddles,

Harness, Collars, &c., has been revived at the old established and well known stand on Balmont Street, one square south of the Court House, Gettysburg, Pa.

Having had an experience of 40 years in this establishment, I feel assured, that with renewed attention to business, we can still further merit and receive a full share of public patronage.
